Here in the United States we have the Power to Vote.
If you think your vote won't count, that's your Crust talking.
If you resent politicians and your resentment keeps you from voting, that's also your Crust talking.
Not voting is a refusal to use the power that's yours by Constitutional right.
Excuses are Crust that give away our power.

One vote in 1776 determined that English, not German, would be the official language of the government of the United States.

The 19th Amendment to the Constitution, guaranteeing a woman's right to vote, was ratified on August 26, 1920 when one vote was switched from a "no" to a "yes".

Don't Give Away Your Power!
Pledge to Vote and Vote on November 2nd.
