Tango Marketing Announces Newsletter For Timberline® Office By Sage Software

Edmonds, WA —June 23, 2005—Tango Marketing, LLC today announced the immediate availability of the latest member of its successful info Newsletter* product line, info for Timberline Office*. The quarterly newsletter is a turnkey marketing communications tool allowing Sage Software® Business Partners to effectively and efficiently communicate with clients, prospects, and alliance partners.

This first issue of info for Timberline Office* is devoted entirely to the new Document Management Module. This latest product offering for Timberline has the power to transform the way Timberline users do business. Document Management is a comprehensive document management system that extends beyond simple imaging and storage functions. It is a complete system that provides classification, storage, routing, and retrieval, and allows for the automatic integration with Timberline financial and operations data.

"It's a natural extension for us to offer a product newsletter for Timberline Business Partners," said Bryan Johnson, president of Tango Marketing. "Other business partners have been successfully using info* newsletters for years as a consistent, professional, simple, and inexpensive way to keep their firm's name in front of their clients, prospects, and alliance partners."

Tango provides the info* newsletter for more than a dozen different Sage Software products, in both printed and email formats. The newsletters are part of the Sage Software Turnkey Marketing Program making them eligible for up to 60% co-op reimbursement. Every newsletter is published in full color in both printed and email versions. Each issue is filled with product reviews, news, and tips, and is personalized for each business partner, including company logo, and contact information.
