▶ Additional Comments

▶ The Gold: This charming 3,020 square foot colonial boasts an elegant exterior style coupled with a company inviting interior. The huge gourmet kitchen will inspire every cook and the vast family room with cozy woodburning fireplace will please both your guests and family members with its congeniality. Four spacious bedrooms and 2.5 baths allow ample room for the growing family. The master bedroom suite offers his and hers walk-in closets and a bath complete with soothing soaking tub and seperate shower stall. The Ponderosa: This appealing center hall colonial offers 3,046 square feet of flowing living space. The standard two story entry foyer adds dignified drama to the entrance. A delight for the cook is the bright and cheery spacious kitchen with breakfast area adjacent to the family room. An additional room on the first floor serves as a study, library or guest room. The four bedrooms on the second floor, include an oversized master bedroom with an enormous walk-in closet and opulent bath. The Aspen: The Aspen with a 3,587 square foot center hall colonial charm, offers your most requested appointments. A guest room with full bath on the first floor supplies you with that much needed in-law guest room or nanny quarters. The entry foyer and family room come standard with dramatic two story ceilings and the second floor is accessed by both a front and rear staircase. Four bedrooms that include a secluded master bedroom suite, flow off the dramatic balcony that overlooks the family room and entry foyer areas. An optional sitting room can be added to the master suite for an additional home office area or computer room. The Boulder with 3,609 square feet of elegant living space is a spectacular home enhanced with double bay windows and interesting extra-special features such as its step down library and oversized family room with dramatic vaulted ceilings and woodburning fireplace. The family sized kitchen accompanied by a breakfast area, glows brightly with sunlight from the sliders that overlook the entertainment-loving deck. Four bedrooms, that include a grand master bedroom suite and multiple closets complete this luxurious offering.
