Helping Your College Athletic Department Communicate We are proud to assist your school with recruitment advertising

SAVE MONEY ON JOB ADVERTISING COSTS

Our career services website reaches more active job seekers than most print publications. Your career posting is available for 30 days online and job seekers can view it 24 hours a day. In the past month, 652 job seekers have signed-up to receive your career opportunities in our weekly newsletter.

SAVE TIME HIRING NEW COACHES

We save your school time searching for new coaches and administrators by displaying your job opportunity online within hours of receiving your notice. We have assisted colleges of all sizes fill over 135 job openings in the past three months.

REACH MORE JOB SEEKERS

We can help your school find candidates year-round with an online profile of your athletic department and college. We help you find candidates before they are ready to make a career change. Over 53,000 job seekers have visited our website looking for athletic jobs in the past six months.

STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS

With our career services we can assist your student-athletes in finding jobs after their college career. We offer schools the opportunity to place internship opportunities free of charge year-round. Whether your student-athletes are looking for jobs in college athletic departments or summer employment we can help them make the transition to a four-year school or into the work force. Over 60 percent of our members are college students or recent grads looking for your internship or entry-level job to start their career.

COMMUNICATE YOUR MESSAGE

Do you have a tournament, sports camp, open date, or special event to promote? We can use our network of online, e-mail, and direct mail communications to promote your athletic department message. We can reach every school and conference in the country and more than 25,000 coaches and athletic administrators to communicate your message.
