

Meet Luke Gomes, the 5-year-old preparing to conquer 5 oceans

Every child should have a sense of adventure and pride in our country. That's why Luke's parents had his name inscribed on the hull of Spirit of Canada – our entry in the 2006 5-Oceans Solo Sailing Race. A few months from now, Luke's will be one of the estimated 10,000 names travelling around the globe, inspiring skipper Derek Hatfield as he takes on the world's best solo sailors in one of the world's toughest challenges.

Join the adventure. www.spiritofcanada.net

Meet Wando, the first Triple Crown Winner
to circle the globe

The owner of Canadian thoroughbred, Wando, feels that champions should support each other. That's why he had Wando's name inscribed on the hull of Spirit of Canada - our entry in the 2006 5-Oceans Solo Sailing Race. A few months from now, Wando's will be one of the estimated 10,000 names racing to victory with Derek Hatfield as he takes on the world's best solo sailors in one of the world's greatest challenges.

Join the adventure. www.spiritofcanada.net

Meet T.R. Hilliard, a man who will be remembered around the world

The family of the late Canadian Naval Lieutenant Thomas Richard Hilliard is dedicated to keeping his memory alive. That's why they had his name inscribed on the hull of Spirit of Canada - our entry in the 2006 5-Oceans Solo Sailing Race. A few months from now, T.R Hilliard's will be one of the estimated 10,000 names travelling around the world, inspiring skipper Derek Hatfield as he takes on the world's best solo sailors in one of the world's toughest challenges.

Join the adventure. www.spiritofcanada.net

