

Stick your Business Card anywhere

No-tech solution to high-tech organization

Rochester, New York September 8, 2005

Forever caught in the high-tech race maze? Do technology and paperwork trails keep you hanging in suspense? The solutions are at StoreSMART.com, the leader in high-quality packaging and organization since 1971.

StoreSMART.com offers premium-quality cardholders for every application and immediate shipping of our stock styles. There are single card pockets to 100 card point-of-purchase displays. Plain or imprinted folding cardholders in 16 colors, adhesive and non-adhesive card pockets, business card pages for ring binders, resealable flaps, thumb-notches and rolodex styles. Laminate cards for luggage tags, slip in name badge holders, and more. Their durability means they virtually won't crack, tear, or break.

Combining cards and printed media for advertising? When a business card is only part of the package, StoreSMART.com has many solutions. From presentation folders to media kits. Stick-it, File-it, Store-it, Send-it. Put it on an envelope, brochure, filing cabinet, literature, binder, shelf, and more. Need to identify products or keep your name in front of the customer? Cardholders have a multitude of applications.

Need custom designs or packaging? There are custom packaging solutions that won't break your wallet. Most custom items have only a 300-piece minimum and we offer a quick 5-8 day turn-around. But, will the product work for the application? Call our full-service team and let us send you a FREE sample.

"I don't dig for my coffee card in the morning any more, as I put all my discount cards into one folding card holder...well almost," said Reenie Feingold, founder of StoreSMART.com and product designer. "In fact, I have several card holders in my purse, one for my driver's license, another for my health insurance information, and of course, I keep several color-coded folding card-holders to keep all my valuable discount cards at my finger tips".

We have small quantities for the home, to large quantities for office and commercial use. For a driver's license, student or work ID card, Social Security card, club membership card, medical insurance card, library card, photos, a spare key, and even lunch money. StoreSMART's expanded line of no-tech organization and packaging is the answer.

The StoreSMART.com website and catalog features over 5000+ sizes. They range from tiny 1" x 1" to large 39" x 26" in adhesive and non-adhesive pockets for printers, manufacturers, healthcare, schools, libraries, universities, offices, and homes. There is immediate shipping for stock items. Again, when you have a specific need, call us for FREE samples. StoreSMART.com, the no-tech solution to hi-tech!
