NOTHING BUT NOODLES COMES TO GRAND RAPIDS

“Goodbye, Tuna Casserole; there’s a new Noodle in Town!”

Nations Restaurant News 11/2003

GRAND RAPIDS, MI (September 29, 2005) – It's grand opening week for Nothing but Noodles newest franchisees, the McCaffrey's. Owners and operators, Ken & Becky McCaffrey, will open Monday, October 3, 2005 bringing fresh, wok seared noodle bowls along with hot or cold salads and soups to Grand Rapids. The new restaurant is located at the Clock Tower Center at 6101 Kalamazoo, and the telephone number is 616.698.9906.

Residents of the Grand Rapids area, Ken and Becky McCaffrey, are excited to bring this new concept to Michigan. “More importantly, we are excited to be involved with the West Michigan business community.” When asked why they chose the Nothing But Noodles concept, they replied, “The food is incredibly fresh, delicious, and served in an exciting atmosphere. This is exactly what West Michigan needs and will love to eat.”

Nothing But Noodles is a fast-casual restaurant with counter service and table delivery, dedicated to providing the highest quality, best-tasting, made-to-order global noodle bowls and salad dishes available. The cuisine draws on a variety of cultural influences from around the world, including favorites from Asia, America, and the Mediterranean. Some of the more popular dishes include an authentic Pad Thai, Beef Stroganoff, Spicy Japanese noodles, Alfredo “to die for,” and a Cranberry Spinach Salad. You will also want to bring the kids by for their signature cotton candy.

Founded in Scottsdale, AZ in 2001, Noodles Development is the creation of Chad Everts and Todd Welker. Everts and Welker used their experience as franchisees for other concepts to create a great franchise opportunity for others. Currently over 150 Nothing But Noodles restaurants are in development in 24 states. For more information, please visit www.nothingbutnoodles.com.
