Sim Dynasty Roots for the White Sox! Fans Receive a Free Season, $100 Dynasty Dollars and More

Chicago, IL // Oct. 6, 2005 – Baseball simulation, Sim Dynasty, congratulates the Chicago White Sox and their fans with a special promotion. All fans who sign up this month will be able to play the remainder of the season (ending Nov. 9th) for free and receive 100 Dynasty Dollars that can be used as a discount towards next season's dues or wagered against other team owners. Sox fans should visit: <http://www.SimDynasty.com/whitesox> to sign up and use promo code "southside".

"Sim Dynasty is a great community full of wonderful baseball fans who just love the game," said Tyson Lowery, President of Sim Dynasty. "As a former Chicagoan, I've seen first hand the way the baseball fans in Chicagoland support their teams and wanted to give something back."

As the White Sox march their way towards a World Series win, the initial 100 Dynasty Dollars will increase to a total of 200 when they beat the Boston Red Sox and 300 when they win the American League Championship Series. When they win the World Series, Sim Dynasty will give Chicago White Sox fans 500 Dynasty Dollars, enough to pay half the dues for the next season. Players can also increase the amount of Dynasty Dollars by successfully winning games and wagering against other team owners.

About Sim Dynasty: <http://www.SimDynasty.com>

Sim Dynasty is a baseball simulation set in the "Golden Age" of baseball, between 1950's and 1970's, before player and owner greed, huge television contracts and free agency changed Major League Baseball from one of manager skill and civic pride into something more focused on money. With more than 3,000 teams, Sim Dynasty is one of the most successful simulations on the market today. Unlike "fantasy baseball," it encourages fans to build a community and nurture their teams and players over many years, not just focus on a single season. As a result, players must think both strategically and creatively as they select draft choices and train them, so they may one day be leading players in the league. Even the off season is important to the game as a time to trade players, allow younger players improve their skills and older ones retire. Seasons last approximately two months and team owners pay dues of $10.95 per season or $54.50 annually.
