The Ice Hotel Quebec-Canada launches
N'Ice Club Mont-Tremblant

Opening Dec. 23rd, 2005 until Mar. 19th, 2006 at the Mont Tremblant Resort this winter is a whole new conceptually unique lounge: N'Ice Club Mont-Tremblant. This Ice Hotel Quebec-Canada realization will provide skiers and tourists with icy cool entertainment, unlike any other, at Canada's second largest ski resort.

N'Ice Club Mont-Tremblant will be made entirely of 100 tons of ice and of 1600 tons of snow. This arched structure of 3 700 sq.ft., with an interior temperature of 28 °F (-2 °C), will be able to accommodate 250 people at a time.
It can be privatized for corporate events and weddings.

When entering N'Ice Club Mont-Tremblant, people will discover a magical world where primitive and modern, snow and stone, ice and heat artistic concepts intermingle. Friends and family will be able to enjoy private alcoves, a fireplace, video projectors, an ice bar, cocktails served in glasses made of ice, and a dance floor; making this icy jewel well worth discovering.

The entrance fee to the N'Ice Club Mont-Tremblant will be 17$ CAD and it will include a cocktail served in glass made of ice. The N'Ice Club will be open from 11am to 11pm for all ages to enjoy.
