London, 10 November 2005

COMMSRESOURCES, a leading supplier of ICT recruitment services - worldwide, today announces that it has won 'Exporter of the Year Award' at the 2005 London Business Awards, organised by the London Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

These highly acclaimed annual awards are designed to celebrate commercial enterprise and excellence across London's business community.

2005 Winners 'Exporter of the Year Award'

Sponsored by the UK Trade & Investment board, the panel of judges found COMMSRESOURCES "... a clear winner, the judges have awarded the title of 'Exporter of the Year' to a company that has demonstrated a history of continuous profitable export sales growth, a strategy that encompasses target markets, an understanding of cultural issues and use of export support services."

Operating across five continents, with services provided to over 30 countries, COMMSRESOURCES is a leading global specialist recruitment and managed resource services business.

COMMSRESOURCES brand stands for Vision, Innovation & Delivery, a leader in the global recruitment market, specialising in contract and permanent recruitment within information communications and technology.

Alison Ford, Group Managing Director of COMMSRESOURCES LTD said, "We are very pleased to have won such a prestigious award. It is a fantastic testament to all the staff at COMMSRESOURCES whose sheer hard work and determination has contributed to this award. Exporting our services to countries in every continent we realise that we are part of a wider community and a common culture. We consider that this award is in part a stewardship that is celebrating the achievement of everyone who has directly or indirectly contributed to it and the special recognition it entails. Above all we will look forward to a future that is equally exciting from the confidence this award has given to us and I am sure, will spur us on to continued success."
