On Schedule for September 2006
Theatrical Release

Selected Cast From Top: Capleton, Alaine Laughton,
Elephant Man, and Beres Hammond

A powerful film portrait of the leaders of the reggae music movement, and how reggae has become a worldwide phenomenon.

Presenting the candid life stories of these unique artists, captured in frank, personal interviews, strengthened by their extraordinary musical performances, filmed entirely live with the authentic backdrop of Jamaica. This is the genuine story of how a small island nation of only three million people took their pain and misery and translated their emotions into music that now resonates around the world. From their native ghetto to international fame, "made in Jamaica" presents the individual stories of these artists who represent the Jamaican Dream.
