Founded in 1938, the Greater Washington Urban League (GWUL), one of more than 100 affiliates of the National Urban League, is a major nonprofit social services and civil rights organization with offices in the District of Columbia and Prince George's County, Maryland. Our mission is to "increase the economic and political empowerment of African Americans and other minorities and to help all Americans share equally in the responsibilities and rewards of full citizenship."

Key program areas are education, employment and training; aging and health services; and housing and community development. In 2005, the GWUL provided services to more than 65,000 persons in the Washington metropolitan area. For more information, call 202.265.8200 or visit our web site at www.gwul.org.
