Trophy Entertainment, Inc. announced today the launch of The Trophy Design Studio...

Beverly Hills, CA March 20, 2006 Trophy Entertainment, Inc. announced the launch of The Trophy Design Studio and Trophy Graphics Design. Trophy Entertainment Inc Executives tapped the talents of the world's most brilliant multimedia talents, including design master mind , Filip Nakic, to produce web design and development projects under the brand , Trophy Design Studio and Trophy Graphics Studio.

Trophy Design Studio was conceived when Trophy Entertainment, Inc. founder, Rhonda Coleman needed a platform to express the visions of the conglomerate. "I literally searched the world over for the best design and multimedia talent. I then realized I absolutely had to create our own in house design and development division. I have worked with many of the best multimedia talents in the world and was highly impressed by the talents of Filip Nakic." said Rhonda Coleman." I began to recruit and hire talent to create the amazing projects for Trophy Entertainment, Inc. in order to bring our visions to a reality. Now of course, because of the creation of The Trophy Design Studio we're able to offer a host of services to the entire world. "

The Trophy Design Studio offerings include logo, branding / identity, graphic design for print, brochures, magazines, web design, interactive presentations and multimedia, power point presentations, database and back-end development, 3D development, games, motion graphics, animations and much more.

Trophy Design Studio has a full staff to accommodate your project and budget. You may contact the Trophy Design Studio for a confidential review of your project as well as a proposal detailing our pricing, procedures and turn times.
