RecruitMilitary Career Fair

A hiring event for veterans with a wide variety of work experience, men and women who are transitioning from active duty, members of the National Guard and reserves, and military spouses. Produced by RecruitMilitary in cooperation with the President's National Hire Veterans Committee (HireVets First). Tuesday, May 16, 2006, in the Exploris Museum building, Raleigh, North Carolina

Some of the feedback from our first event of 2006, held in Jacksonville on February 22:

“RecruitMilitary shares the Department of Labor’s commitment to increasing employer awareness of the value veterans bring to the workforce. This job fair was very successful in connecting veterans to employers, and we look forward to working with RecruitMilitary in the future to conduct more of these extremely worthwhile events.”

- - Charles S. Ciccolella, Assistant Secretary of Labor for Veterans’ Employment and Training

“THIS EVENT EXCEEDED OUR EXPECTATIONS BOTH IN THE QUALITY AND THE QUANTITY OF CANDIDATES THAT APPROACHED OUR BOOTH. IT WAS OBVIOUS THAT WHATEVER PREPLANNING WAS DONE PAID DIVIDENDS.”

- - Werner Enterprises

Hiring military veterans is a great way of saying to those who have served, “Thank you for your service and sacrifice.”

It is also very good business. Transitioning and veteran personnel have attributes that make them outstanding civilian employees, including leadership, initiative, self-discipline, and an excellent work ethic.

The overwhelming majority of active-duty personnel work in military employment categories that have easily recognized civilian counterparts-ranging from “Engineering, Science, and Technical” and “Machine Operator and Precision Work” to “Transportation and Material Handling” and “Executive, Administrative, and Managerial.”

Individuals who have trained in the combat occupations make outstanding leaders in Corporate America.

To help Corporate America connect with this outstanding talent, RecruitMilitary will heavily promote the career fair to job seekers throughout the Mid-Atlantic and the Southeast.

RecruitMilitary will issue e-mail invitations to a special portion of our database of registered job seekers who have a military background: those individuals who live in, or desire to live in, the Mid-Atlantic and the Southeast.

RecruitMilitary will announce the career fair to transition counselors at all military bases in the region and will mail printed flyers to be handed out to transitioning military personnel and posted in the transition facilities.

RecruitMilitary will announce the career fair in newspaper advertising and will contact broadcast and other print media in the Mid-Atlantic and the Southeast.

RecruitMilitary, LLC, is a full-service, nationwide, military-to-civilian recruiting firm. In addition to participation in career fairs, the company offers database subscriptions; job postings on its Web site, www.recruitmilitary.com; advertising in online and print media; and contingency hiring services. All of the company’s owners, officers, account executives, and recruiters are either veterans or active or former reservists. The company was founded in 1998. RecruitMilitary is headquartered in Cincinnati and has eight field offices throughout the United States.
