JobOps is Platinum Sponsor at Sage Insights Partner Conference

JobOps Job Management Software Streamlines Every Job Shop Function from Quoting, Purchasing, Ordering Costing, Tracking to Field Service and More

Minneapolis, MN, May 2, 2006—JobOps, a Job Management Software solution that works with the award-winning Sage Software MAS 90 and Sage MAS 200 ERP systems, will be sharing its vision of a fully-integrated job management solution next week at Sage Software's Insights Business Partner Conference. The conference is being held at the Gaylord Opryland Resort and Convention Center in Nashville, Tenn. from May 8-11, 2006. JobOps is the platinum sponsor for the event where Sage Software's North American Business Partners meet to exchange ideas, attend educational sessions and form new business relationships. JobOps will network with other Sage Business Partners who are seeking innovative solutions and strategic alliances.

"Sage Software welcomes JobOps as the platinum sponsor of this event," said Jim Portner, vice president and general manager of the Sage MAS product line. "Small and mid-market business owners have special challenges in Job Shop Management, and JobOps is a proven solution. The combination of Sage MAS 90 and Sage MAS 200 ERP with JobOps helps business owners gain advantages in offering new distribution, manufacturing or service offerings."

The JobOps exhibit will feature product demonstrations, examples of innovative implementations, expert advice from on-site solutions specialists and successful software migration strategies for growing businesses.

According to Manufacturing Technology Magazine, Sage Software has more than 80,000 active manufacturing customers in North America. And among all ERP vendors on Manufacturing Technology's Global 100, Sage Software offers the widest product solution set targeted for small and medium sized manufacturing organizations, enabling discrete, process, or mixed-mode manufacturers to select a "right-size" business solution for their operations – Peachtree by Sage, Sage BusinessWorks, Sage PFW, Sage MAS 90, Sage MAS 200, Sage MAS 500 ERP and Sage Accpac. Sage also offers integrated solutions for fixed assets, human resources, time tracking and CRM (customer relationship management).
