christij about jewelry

"Some of my earliest memories are of playing dress up with my Grandmother's costume jewelry, and over 30 years later I still find playing dress up just as much fun" says Christi Johnstone, owner of christij jewelry.

With a lifelong love of crafts, fashion, art, design and all things girly, Christi started christij jewelry in 2005 and launched her website, www.christij.com, in June 2006. Christi has created a full line of jewelry that women will find versatile and easy to wear for casual or formal occasions. She has combined her lifelong love of crafts and fashion to design pieces that women of all ages can enjoy.

Christi lives in Phoenix (she's a fourth generation native) with her husband and daughter Isabella.
