eBI Solutions Opens Office In New York

eBI Solutions, a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner and a leading provider of Integrated eBusiness Solutions, announced today its expansion into the New York area.

eBI Solutions new east coast location will provide Business Process Integration, Business Intelligence and eCommerce solutions to customers with a special focus on Microsoft's BizTalk 2006 Server product offering.

"We welcome eBI Solutions to the New York area", comments Michael Jackson, Partner Account Manager for Microsoft. "We look forward to their assistance in providing comprehensive solutions that enhance efficiency and create revenue opportunities for our customers".

"The development of this new east coast location is a natural step in our growth and we feel now is the right time for expansion," said Michael Klotz, Managing Partner for eBI Solutions. "Our objective is to have a significant presence on the east coast. This office in New York will also be of major benefit to our existing customers in the area."

States Klotz, "This investment is a milestone in our company's history and demonstrates a major commitment to our future growth here in New York. The expansion plans we are announcing today represent a strong partnership between eBI Solutions and Microsoft Corporation. Our participation in Microsoft's BizTalk Virtual Technical Specialist Team is a good example of our solid involvement with Microsoft.

The Microsoft BizTalk Virtual Technical Specialist Team program is a select group within the Microsoft partner community. The focus of the program is to supplement Microsoft's internal Technical Specialist team.

"Their primary role is to communicate the value of BizTalk Server to customers and to provide architectural guidance for Enterprise Integration solutions", said Marty Wasznicky, Field Program Manager for CSD (Connected Systems Division) at Microsoft. "Ed Lee of eBI Solutions received the title of a Virtual TS for BizTalk in the New York area, earlier this year".
