San Diego Experiences Rapid Growth and so Does the Wedding Industry

As San Diego continues to grow, so does the number of people getting married.

San Diego, CA (PRWEB) July 6th, 2006 – Every year there are more than 25,000 weddings in San Diego and that number continues to increase. With the rapid growth of the San Diego area, more people are moving there and in return, are getting married there.

The wedding industry brings in more than 50 billion dollars a year and the need for wedding vendors, as well as help finding the right wedding vendors, has become a necessity. San Diego Wedding Insider, a Web site focused on helping the San Diego bride with the wedding planning process, aims to help both the vendors and the people looking for vendors.

“With the increase in weddings per year, there is a high demand for good, solid information on what vendors are credible and recommended,” said Anna Gamboa, owner of San Diego Wedding Insider. “We have created a Web site that makes the vendor selection process easy and quick.”

The San Diego Wedding Insider has a convenient vendor section, where brides and other people involved in the wedding process can quickly pick which vendor category they are looking for and they will be directed to a list of credible vendors. The site also has a section on local, upcoming events, creative wedding ideas and current style trends, as well as much more.

Along with a helpful Web site and credible wedding planning tool, San Diego Wedding Insider will also participate in the Bridal Bazaar in July, as well as be featured in San Diego Style Weddings magazine.
