Kelly Blundell - your personal consultant

"Finding the right new home for aging seniors can be overwhelming. I welcome the opportunity to help streamline that process for families so they feel in control of the manageable task and relieved and secure with the decision they make."

Kelly has been an active member of the senior housing industry within the states of NJ and PA for 10 years. She has worked with several organizations and understands the inner workings of senior living communities. She has an extensive background working one on one with families to navigate the decision making process and find placement in the maze that has become today's senior living market.

Kelly's experience is two fold covering both admissions and administration within in all varieties of housing including skilled nursing, assisted living and continuing care retirement communities. She has a keen understanding of what it takes to make a comfortable and lasting decision that families can be proud of.

Most importantly, Kelly is dedicated to the elderly population and strives to ensure that their quality of life is enhanced each day.
