Discover 31 devotionals that feed the soul

Washington, DC (PRWEB) August 21, 2006 -- Pierce Morgan & Associates and Xulon Press announce the release of Turning Point: Discovery God in Your Everyday Life, an inspiring and timeless collection of Christian devotions for all ages, by Robert L. Morgan III.

Turning Point is an all-encompassing journey that lets the reader see how God sovereignly directs the path of a Christian from the new birth to maturity in Christ. The thirty-one devotions, which are intended to help evangelical Christians in their search for a deeper relationship with God, provide solutions to problems faced by believers based on events from the author's personal experience, and more importantly, from a biblical viewpoint. By using real-life examples and a candid tell-it-like-it-is style that helps readers apply the book's take away lessons to their lives, Turning Point reveals the way God uses everyday circumstances to prepare the Body of Christ to win the unique spiritual battles that come to test every believer.

Known as the great motivator, Robert Morgan is currently the head of Pierce, Morgan & Associates, an organization dedicated to helping people reach their fullest potential. Prior to starting the enterprise, he was a financial manager who established an excellent reputation as a strategic thinker, dynamic public speaker, and innovative motivator. During his twenty-year career, he has helped publicly and privately held companies generate and manage $395 million worth of new business in the government contracting industry. Through his seminars, books, and tapes, Robert mentors thousands of people each year. Perhaps his most significant talent is the ability to synthesize knowledge, experience, and perspective from diverse cultures and provide pragmatic approaches to dealing with life's everyday problems. He is the author of 21st Century Negotiation Strategies, Turning Point Daily Devotions, and numerous children's short stories.
