

Las Vegas, NV - August 30, 2006 – Twisting Pixels has done it again! Twisting Pixels announces ArtStudioPro, the next major special effect product from the award winning special effect and digital media enhancement company. ArtStudioPro is a simple to use application and Photoshop plugin that will easily convert photos into paintings and drawings. Natural Media is now brought to the masses. No longer are users required to be fine artists to create the look and elegance of watercolor or colored pencil. ArtStudioPro is designed to increase your productivity by doing most of the work for you.

Within minutes of using ArtStudioPro, any user can turn a regular photograph into a work of art. ArtStudioPro includes over 30 special effect filters that help all users create the look of a masterpiece with just a few clicks of the mouse. ArtStudioPro's 30 effects recreate such looks as Watercolor, Colored Pencil, Crayon, Marker, and Technical Pen.

ArtStudioPro users range from wedding photographers, to outdoor photographers, to portrait photography, to architectural design, to graphic artists. The sky is the limit for possibilities with ArtStudioPro.

All of Twisting Pixel's products include both a standalone application, and a Photoshop compatible plugin to help users produce works of art as easily as possible. All effects are rendered in a resolution independent manner and scale to higher resolutions automatically.
