ExtraTowing.com Takes Aim at Auto Shipping Market

Chicago, Illinois - 2006-09-11 - Thousands of people and businesses move their vehicles every year. Most of them are turning to the Internet to do research, compare prices and most importantly make their buying decision. www.ExtraTowing.com now provides an exceptional web solution, which connects towing companies with people or companies who need towing services.

This new website is for dealers, manufacturers, corporate relocation companies, auto auctions and other consumers who need to move their vehicles within the United States or Internationally.

“Our transport site will help people save money and get much faster service, no matter what kind of transport they need. This is available without downloading any software and the best of all, service is completely free for members to post their loads”, says project leader Adrijus Rudaitis.

Website auto towing companies’ directory allows user to search for service providers, read their feedback and request price quotes.

Also this is a great chance for auto transport and broker companies to join this network, start receiving new leads and fill empty truck space along their routes.

ExtraTowing.com offers powerful tools for broker and towing companies such as flexible load/truck search, feedback rating system, document upload option and possibility to get company in front of the thousands of people who are searching for their services online. These and other options will help towing companies promote their businesses, find customers, book jobs and be more profitable.

If you're looking for the best place online to ship your vehicles then give www.ExtraTowing.com a try today.
