

"Our business is helping to grow your business!"
~ Lynn Sarkany, Principal

As Founder and Principal, Lynn Sarkany has over 15 years of marketing management experience ranging from single-person private practices to manufacturing companies and major medical facilities with over $50M in annual gross sales.

Additionally, she has an excellent understanding of both corporate and business needs, as well as business marketing structure, from over 14 years of work experience as an Engineering Manager at a major power utility.

Lynn's business strength lies in her ability to assimilate ideas from a diverse array of markets and industries. This talent enables businesses to seek-out and enter markets quickly and effectively.

Lynn has an MBA in Marketing from the Peter F. Drucker Graduate Management Institute of the Claremont Graduate School. She is on staff as a faculty member and instructor of Marketing and Public Relations at both the graduate and undergraduate levels at the University of Phoenix.

"Our practice has tripled in size since Marketfinders has managed our marketing."

L.A., Pasadena, CA

"Marketfinders helped us create a customized business and marketing plan and put that plan into action. Our "cash register" is ringing more than ever before!"

T.N., Pittsburgh, PA

"The Marketfinders staff was able to understand what we wanted our business identity and market position to be. Their excellent communications and sales strategy translated into a 47% increase in profits in the past year."

J.F., Beverly Hills, CA

We invite you to contact us to schedule a complimentary consultation to discuss your specific marketing needs, or any questions that you may have regarding the marketing of your business or practice.