

BODY LANGUAGE SECRETS--FOR DATING, FOR LIFE!

Janine Driver, Lyin' Tamer™

Janine Driver has been dubbed the 'Lyin' Tamer' because she can tell when people are lying. After a decade of successfully training thousands of law enforcement officers to obtain confessions from crooks, Janine has brought her invaluable people-reading abilities over to the dating and business world.

Not only is Janine a body language and deception detection expert, but also a singles researcher, speaker, relationship coach, popular media guest, and author of the books How to Have a Date Six Nights a Week (If You Want) and The Masters of Success. She is also the creator of the audio CD series Excuse Me, Are Those Your Pants on FIRE - What Master Manipulators and Liars Don't Want You to Know! Janine has worked with thousands of singles across the country, at various colleges, singles groups and in one-on-one sessions. Each week, new relationships develop as a result of the skills Janine's students have acquired.

Janine's cunning body language analyses appear in the national interest magazine, Life & Style, where each month she weighs in on such celebrity sweethearts as Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt, Katie Holmes and Tom Cruise, J-Lo and Marc Anthony, Julia Roberts and Danny Moder, Jim Carrey and Jenny McCarthy...and the list goes on!

In 2006, Janine created, produced and provided the on-air talent for FOX News Radio Affiliate WMET's dating radio show, Catch Me If You Can - The Dating Show That Cuts To The Chase! Janine is also a former stand-up comic who shared the stage with Chris Rock, Robin Williams, Ray Romano, and Lewis Black. Her quick-wit and comical tales have been highlighted on Fox News Live, NBC's Today Show, CBS Sunday Morning Show, Geraldo, and E!

—Tony Snow, Fox News Live

"On a scale of 1 to 10, today's guest, Janine Driver, is an 11! I think she is the BEST guest we've had yet!"
-David Lee Roth, Host, The David Lee Roth Radio Show

"THANK YOU so much for that incredible session last night! You were just terrific! You really have a gift, Janine, and it helped me more than I can say. I must admit, as a psychologist for over 30 years, you helped me more with my dating life in 30-minutes than I help my patients in a year! You're a natural!"
