

Our Competition Gives You More!

More doses! More bottles! More hassles! More shipments! More overall costs!

It takes
14 bottles[†] of XanGo™...

...just to equal the same amount of mangostin xanthones, ounce-for-ounce as Vemma™!

Xanthones are a class of plant nutrients that are highly biologically active and have very potent antioxidant capabilities. In fact, mangostin xanthones are one of the most studied of all xanthones. But would you believe it takes 14 bottles[†] of XanGo™ to simply match the xanthone strength of one bottle of Vemma Mangosteen Plus™? Packing a powerful punch of natural xanthones, no other product contains more of these powerful compounds that provide your body with vital nutritional benefits.

Every bottle of Vemma's Mangosteen Plus contains 2,668.8 mgs.[†] of mangostin xanthones! In contrast, each bottle of XanGo contains only 192.5 mgs.[†] of these beneficial xanthones.

The power and value of the Vemma Nutrition Program™ is simply incomparable! If product potency and quality matter to you,

Now you're probably wondering what is their product really filled with? XanGo chose to give you more common fruit juices like apple and grape juice. But those juices pack a punch of their own in the form of price! And 14 bottles of XanGo will set you back $350 USD (distributor price)!

With Vemma's Nutrition Program, you only pay $60 USD for a one-month's supply of Mangosteen Plus™ (containing critical antioxidant vitamins, aloe vera and green tea!) and you also receive America's #1 selling liquid ionic mineral product, Essential Minerals.®
