

Jefferson Brass Announces its Brass Fireplace Accessories for the Winter 2006-2007 Season

Jefferson Brass Company, a high-end decorative brass gifts and brass home accessories company, announced today that it has restocked many of its fine fireplace accessories that were sold out in November in anticipation of a strong winter season.

“We have seen incredible sales growth this quarter within our fireplace accessories product line, and we are excited that we will be able to continue to provide these desirable items to our customers without placing backorders,” commented Jody Goehring, the company’s Director of Business Development.

By far the most popular item has been the Virginia’s Blow Poke (<http://www.jeffersonbrass.com/virginia-blowpoke-with-hook.html>), a combination of a bellows and a poker that utilizes the principle of air movement discovered by Bernoulli in the 18th century. A Jefferson Brass exclusive, this exquisitely designed fire tool is the best way to restart a dwindling fire. This piece is hand cast in solid brass and is an all-in-one solution to your fireplace needs. An article written by New York designer Bunny Williams in House Beautiful praises Virginia's Blow Poke as the "only fire tool you need!"

Jefferson Brass features a wide array of brass fireplace accessories, including a small version of the Virginia’s Blow Poke, called the Huntsman Collapsible Blow Poke (<http://www.jeffersonbrass.com/huntsman-collapsible-blowpoke.html>). Also included in the line is a decorative brass fire tool set, inspired by Thomas Jefferson, which has the elegant elliptical shape in its main base coupled with gracious curves of the elliptical handles. The entire set is heavily cast in solid brass, and its quality is truly unique. This has been very popular this fall. Other accessories include solid brass fireplace pokers featuring a fox head and a duck head, a damper pull, and a jamb hook, the traditional and classic support hook for a single fire tool poker. Mary Kirk Goehring, Jefferson Brass founder and President, also announced the development of additions to the line, which are expected to be available to the public within the next few months.
