New Geisha "Sex Secrets" Book: Not Politically, but Practically, Correct! Author and Book are Guaranteed to Make a Splash

(Alameda, CA – October 27, 2006) SEX SECRETS OF AN AMERICAN GEISHA is based on author Py Kim Conant's research with literally hundreds of single and married Asian and American women and men pursuing relationships, as well as on her own personal experience finding – and bedding and wedding – her American husband.

While investigating the lives of Japanese Geisha (and Korean Kisaeng), Py found a deep well of untapped wisdom in the Geisha's centuries-old feminine practices that could be applied to 21st century women wishing to learn how to attract and keep a man happy and in love for a lifetime. First she tested this wisdom upon herself as she sought to meet her "Good Man." The results? Within 18 months Py had lost over 30 pounds (and kept it off), turned into a sexy (if marriageable) vamp, and had met, become engaged to, and married her husband, Richard.

Thrilled by the results of the Geisha's teachings, Py wanted to help women of all cultures find their happiness and wrote this book. As she says, while her advice is frequently politically incorrect, it is always practically correct, and refreshing. Her "bottom line" message of hope: any woman, single or married, and traditionally beautiful or not, can find success in the pursuit of love, marriage, and happiness aided by the practical yet sexy secrets of the Far East.

GEISHA SAVVY: DATING AND LOVE QUIZ ANSWERS

1. (B) The American Geisha does not date, have sex, or marries a man unless he is a “Good Man.” It is difficult to know enough about a man in fifteen minutes to decide if he is a “Good Man” for you. Don’t make a real date. To get an idea whether he could be good for you– and worth at least one date– meet him for coffee next week. (For personal safety, always drive your own car in the early stages of your relationship.)
2. (C) Your femininity. Research has shown that men are not very interested in your job, home, or money. (Women are more interested in these aspects of a person). Men crave sexy and feminine partners. They do not care too much about what you have, but how you are (sexy and feminine).
3. (D) A conscious, aware, and responsible person. A “Good Man” is conscious of what is going on around him, of his relationship with you, of his dealings at work, and of the passing years and events in his life. When your man is aware and conscious you feel heard by him, appreciated, and connected to him. He does not blame others for what happens in his life, but takes it upon himself to succeed in life and in his relationship with you. He is dependable.
4. (D) Lunch. After the initial attraction an American Geisha sets up time to talk more. This helps her determine whether he is really a “Good Man.” Lunch is inexpensive, takes place in the daytime, and allows you to conveniently excuse yourself if you decide he is not for you.
5. (D) All of the above. Once you have decided he is your “Good Man,” only have unprotected sex if he is committed to a monogamous relationship, and you have discussed your sexual histories. As an American Geisha you should ensure you are both tested for a range of STDs, and treated if necessary. Always keep in mind that unprotected sex can lead to pregnancy. If either one of you is not ready for this responsibility use protection.
