

January 5, 2007 – Twisting Pixels is on a roll in the graphics and photoshop industry. Twisting Pixels announces the release of a major update to its award winning image-to-painting product ArtStudioPro. ArtStudioPro Vol 2 adds 5 new media types to the already impressive ArtStudioPro series. These new media types include Oil, Oil Pastel, Chalk, Charcoal, and Finger painting. Click and get artistic power is now at every user's fingertips. No Painting Required!

ArtStudioPro includes 5 media types which include Colored Pencil, Crayon, Watercolor, Technical Pen, and Marker. Also included are numerous supporting filters that will bring any painting to life.

ArtStudioPro Vol 2 includes Oil, Oil Pastel, Chalk, Charcoal, and Finger painting. Never before has it been so easy to turn any image into an impressionistic oil painting, the look and feel of darkly smudge charcoal, or a fine detailed oil pastel.

As with all of Twisting Pixel's fine products, an application and Photoshop compatible plug-in are included. User's can pick and choose how they want to run the filters.
