Are you willing to devote the next months and years to building an enterprise that offers greater financial prosperity? If you have that genuine desire, and if you qualify for an AC Rep-ship, you will hold the keys to the best vehicle for financial independence available.

Advantage Conferences seeks Representatives who are service minded. My personal and corporate vision is to help motivated individuals throughout the world realize their God-given potential, while creating a substantively improved lifestyle for both customers and AC Representatives. Please review the 3 Simple Steps thoughtfully and prayerfully.

I'm excited that you are here, and I welcome you to the world of Advantage Conferences!

Great Success,

Tim Darnell

What AC Reps do...

AC Reps are professional inviters, meaning they invite Candidate product users to their Personalized Marketing Website (PMW) to review the AC product-line. All product details and explanations are provided for potential product users. Reps don't explain or talk to a Candidate until the Candidate has reviewed the products and has expressed genuine interest. This simplified, "automated" approach to product sales makes marketing AC products less time consuming and ensures a uniform, consistent presentation by all AC Representatives.

All necessary product information is available on the AC Rep's Personalized Marketing Website, so Representatives focus their energy on directing traffic to their website. Reps are taught a variety of marketing methods on a regular basis including Internet, direct mail, and word of mouth techniques. Also, optional, professional printed and multi-media marketing materials are provided by the Company to help Reps present a professional image to their potential customers.

Representatives work with their AC Mentors and are expected to maintain communication with them, and accountability to them on a weekly basis.

■ President's Interview

Unlike many home-based income opportunities that allow anyone to enroll who can write a check, a President's Interview is required for AC Candidates. This form allows Corporate to make an informed decision as to whether a Candidate is a good fit for an AC Rep-ship. Candidates are informed within two business days as to their acceptance or denial of their Advantage Conferences Rep-ship.

■ What is the Commission/Profit Potential?

The compensation plan is designed to fairly and amply reward serious Representatives. Consistency and long-term efforts are requisite for profits in any enterprise and certainly true for the AC opportunity as well.

Commissions range from 20 percent to 70 percent of retail, depending on the product. President's Package purchases provide a qualified MMC-IV Mentor an exciting $7,000.00 commission! Several Representatives have achieved substantial six-digit annual incomes through their focused and consistent marketing efforts earning $7,000.00 Over and Over Again!

■ Getting Started

After completing the 3 Simple Steps and successfully filling out your President's Interview and being notified that your application was approved by the Home Office, you will want to first experience one or more of AC's products. Although no product purchase is required, the Company prefers to have Representatives who understand the value of the product(s) by virtue of first-hand experience. Our best Representatives use and believe in the Company's products. They are convinced that the AC product is important, as well as life-changing for the fact that it has made a substantial impact on them. It is difficult to represent a product one hasn't experienced personally and/or doesn't believe in. Better to be 100 percent convinced of the value of the product a person intends to represent by experiencing it personally.

■ 30-Day Product Review

After purchasing one or more AC products at retail, Candidates are encouraged to thoroughly review the product for a minimum of 30 days. The review period enables Candidates to gain an understanding and appreciation for the product; and also whether or not they can represent the product with enthusiasm and conviction. After the 30 day product review period, Candidates are then eligible to enroll as a Representative if they so desire.

Purchasers of the MMC product will also be given temporary access to the Millionaire Mindset Tele-Mentoring Call on Thursday afternoons during their 30 Day Product Review period.

■ Getting Started Options

Product purchase options are structured so that virtually everyone, regardless of their current financial situation, can personally own one or more AC products. Even someone who is financially challenged can start with the Wealth of Knowledge©, Designed for Success© Workshop, or the MMC-I, II or III Conferences. With that being said, AC Reps have historically chosen MMC-IV as their product of choice more so than any other option.

STEP #2: What's My Next Step?

Your next step depends on you. What will 2007 look like for you? You can keep doing what you've always done, and you'll keep getting the results you've always experienced. I truly don't believe that's the option you're looking for.

Rather, take the next positive step – Step #2: Review the Compensation Structure. Learn how you can make a tremendous income from home as a Representative with Advantage Conferences, as we create a portion of the millionaires that Paul Zane Pilzer predicts will occur in the next ten years.

Be sure to turn on your speakers to HEAR as well as SEE the presentation. The compensation plan is simple, but you will want to watch this presentation several times to make sure you get it. Until you genuinely understand the simple dynamics of this Federally Trademarked concept, Reverse Margin™, you'll not see the reality of the phrase $7,000.00 Over and Over Again. When you do "get it", you may find yourself staying awake at night! Don't procrastinate, finish all 3 Simple Steps and then call or e-mail your Representative to meet them and they will answer any remaining questions you may have.

Statement of Orientation by

Advantage Conferences President, Tim Darnell

Individual Value/Guiding Hand

An abiding fundamental principle of our Company, Advantage Conferences is that people are our most important asset. We have, and will continue to emphasize and celebrate the intrinsic value of all people, and especially each person associated with us.

Bottom lines, projections, profit margins, etc., are all issues that I am aware of and concerned about as the owner of the Company. However, these issues pale in comparison to the importance of our individuals. Each person that hitches their wagon to the star of our ideals and progressive campaigns is created by God and has infinite value and importance. Accordingly, I daily seek to understand the needs and concerns of each of our members.

Our business model has been constructed around satisfying and enhancing the financial conditions of our Reps, but there is much more that must be attended to. Our members have families. Most have children. Each family unit (including our singles) experiences crises, failure, sickness, loss, frustrations, and chaos to some extent at different times in the course of living life. I am aware of all of these things.

It is for this reason that we make no small effort to guide our members in matters of spiritual growth and ethics. One small manifestation of that ongoing effort is our weekly publication of “The Messenger”. Each issue attempts to deliver to our members and subscribers Biblical truths that provide guidance and help in virtually every facet of their lives.

There is no question that God has his hand in my life, my family, and on this business, and that He amazingly watches over each of us minute by minute. He has His hand on you as well. He is our guide and companion on a daily basis, and for that I am personally humbled and grateful.

It is important for you to understand that the business of Advantage Conferences is God’s business. And so — in every policy we institute, every word we speak, and literally everything we do — we do so dedicated to amplifying His glory and not our own.

I am awestruck by how God can use imperfect people like myself and our Reps to further His Kingdom, if we will let Him. I don’t write this to impress you or lure you to our business. I do so to simply explain up-front where I stand and how this Company operates.

If you prefer a business to be secular, then you will find many of our competitors to be a better fit. If you find the idea that God is brought up on a regular basis, that He is our source, and that the truth of the Bible is our absolute guide to be unsettling, then you will probably not be very comfortable here. However, the idea of separating God from one’s business is a serious mistake in judgment. Attempting to keep the Creator out of that which He created is nonsense.

We indeed are resolute in creating profits and better financial situations for hundreds and even thousands of Reps. But we are more resolute in doing business correctly, with God as our guide, Jesus Christ as our model, and constantly recognizing and delighting in the value of our people for their intrinsic worth.

You are infinitely valuable. You are God’s child. I encourage you to live your life with that in mind. You will be treated that way here.
