

SPLENDID SENIORS

Great Lives, Great Deeds

by Jack Adler

52 people whose achievements after age 65 remind us that creativity, intelligence, passion & influence can not only flower in later years, but bear delicious fruit.

"Imagination grows by exercise, and contrary to common belief, is more powerful in the mature than in the young."

W. SOMERSET MAUGHAM

"You gain strength, courage and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You must do the thing you think you cannot do."

ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

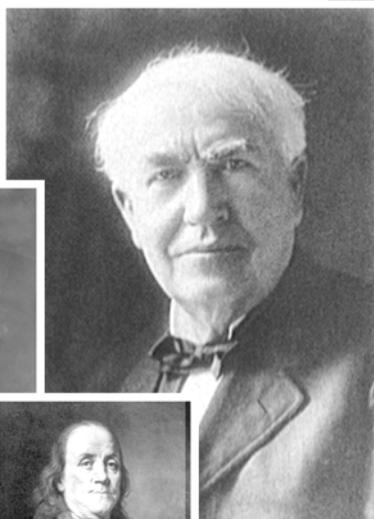

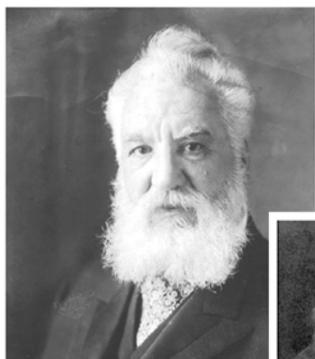

"When one door closes, another opens; but we often look so long and regretfully upon the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened for us."

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL

The inspiring ensemble includes Mary Baker Eddy, who was 86 when she founded the Christian Science Monitor; Alexander Graham Bell, who received a patent for his work on a hydrofoil boat at age 75; Benjamin Disraeli, who became prime minister of England for the second time when he was 70; Susan B. Anthony, who was past 80 when she founded the International Woman Suffrage Alliance; and more.

"The longer I live, the more beautiful life becomes."
