Below are ten suggested questions to get you started:

1. How can a bride calculate the expected cost of her flowers?
2. How can a bride locate flowers that aren't commonly used or readily available?
3. With the DIY trend so popular, can a bride negotiate her cost with florists for their services?
4. Which of the wedding flower arrangements are easiest for DIY projects?
5. Which of the arrangements should be left to a professional?
6. How can a bride on a limited budget most effectively cut costs?
7. How does Wedding Flowers-DIY's consultation process work, since it's not in person?
8. What is the time commitment involved with DIY wedding flowers?
9. How much cost is involved in non-floral purchases (ribbon, containers, etc.)
10. Are florists' costs going down with the growing competition from DIY business?
