Janitorial Training Programs Now Available In Spanish at TheJanitorialStore.com

Brainerd, Minnesota. TheJanitorialStore.com is happy to announce the release of its janitorial training programs, which are now available in Spanish. With the influx of Spanish speaking employees in the cleaning industry, this is an affordable opportunity for cleaning companies to professionally train their Spanish speaking employees so they can perform at the top notch level of service their customers expect and deserve.

"Inconsistent training is a problem in the cleaning industry", says Steve Hanson, co-founder of TheJanitorialStore.com. "With more and more Spanish speaking employees entering the workforce, these training programs give cleaning companies a way to provide all of their employees with consistent training, making sure that all tasks are completed with the customer's satisfaction in mind. These programs will help ensure all employees are fully trained and ready to handle any task."

The staff at TheJanitorialStore.com has over 40 years of combined professional commercial cleaning experience and from this experience they have developed the "Cleaning to Perfection" series of janitorial training programs. The programs included in this training series are General Cleaning, Hard Floor Care, Carpet Spotting, Window Cleaning, and the Janitorial Safety Program. These programs all include step by step instructions in Spanish on how to prepare for the job, how to handle common complaints, and how to clean step-by-step. Plus the programs emphasize the importance of small details, and include a review section and training log. These programs are available in downloadable PDF format, PowerPoint presentations, and some are available in printed versions.

In addition to training programs, TheJanitorialStore.com has other quality products to assist cleaning company owners become successful in business including the following e-books: Cleaning Company Policy Manual and Employee Handbook (also available in Spanish), Home Office Procedures Manual for Cleaning Companies, Marketing and Sales Success for Cleaning Companies, and How to Drive Local Traffic to Your Cleaning Business Website.

The Janitorial Store is a subscription web site that gives owners of small cleaning companies an opportunity to share knowledge, ask questions, participate in tele-seminars, find affordable training programs, and read articles written for start-up, small, and growing cleaning companies.
