Selasee (pronounced sell-LAH-see) is a World Music/Reggae artist from Ghana, now residing in Boulder, Colorado. Being inspired by Bob Marley and Nat King Cole, he uses his music to approach complex and profound subjects with simple words and infectious melody's. The original blend of musical styles gives his music accessibility to a broad range of audiences.

Selasee's simplicity and humility has won the hearts of tens of thousands during his 2006 Festival summer tour in Quebec, Canada. The fact he was an unknown artist to the region did not stop his music from carrying the crowds into a world of positive vibrations, moving hips and shaking heads. The press has reported this as being "The Magic of Selasee".

In 2006 he was selected to showcase at the MIDEM 2006 BUZZBAND in Cannes, France, The MUSEXPO 2006 edition in Los Angeles, USA and the CMJ Marathon in New York USA. He has also performed for the 2005 Ghana Music Awards.
