Crouch, Slavin & Company Adds Human Resources Consulting Services Division

Crouch, Slavin & Company adds new division headed up by 30-year HR veteran Bill Webb

Tulsa, OK – March 30, 2007 – Crouch, Slavin & Company, a leading professional services firm offering HRMS and accounting applications to businesses in the Southwest, is pleased to announce the addition of a Human Resources Consulting Services division. The division will be run by Bill Webb, MA, SPHR and principle of OK-based The HR Consulting Edge.

The new division will offer a wide range of HR consultative services including HR audits, reporting compliance, compensation planning, performance appraisal systems and the development and implementation of policies and procedures handbooks. Programs are completely tailored to each company's individual needs. Larger companies with an established HR department will benefit from training sessions to add skills and key competencies as well as audit offerings. Companies without an HR department will benefit from outsourced services.

"We are committed to providing a holistic solution for our clients," said Gary Crouch, president of Crouch, Slavin & Company. "It made a lot of sense to offer Bill's services. His years of practical experience and knowledge complement our application consulting skills. The true beneficiary is the client who can work with one company for all of their HR needs."

For more than 30 years Bill Webb has helped companies throughout Oklahoma achieve superior results through innovative human resources programs. He also has developed and delivered curriculum for Oklahoma Technology Center's instructional programs.
