Takacs is one of the first Elder Law attorneys in the nation to assemble an interdisciplinary team of experts to provide integrated client care. His innovations have “transformed the practice of Elder Law in the US” and “have set a new standard of excellence in the field”. Takacs’ presentation is particularly critical and timely for members of the “Sandwich Generation” – Baby Boomers who are still parenting their own children while faced with an immediate or eminent crisis involving the care of elderly parents or other disabled loved ones.

WHY DO I NEED A LAWYER FOR MY ELDER LOVED ONE?

Hot button issues include: long term care and nursing home financing; Medicaid and other public benefits; asset protection; wills; trusts; care advocacy; crisis intervention and more.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Men and women currently or expecting to face elder care issues
- Elderly persons interested in pre-crisis planning
- Healthcare professionals dealing with the elderly
- Retirement community management
- Lawyers with an interest in elder care
- Persons dealing with the life care concerns of a disabled loved one

Don’t Miss this one time presentation by one of the best known experts in the United States today. For details on this event and for reservations, call aro at 704.839.3520 or visit www.consultaro.com
