

WHAT IS AGLOW? – FACT SHEET

- ◆ Aglow International is a transdenominational organization of Christian women that some Christian leaders call a “global movement.”
- ◆ Aglow is one of the largest international women's organizations, with more than 200,000 women meeting together monthly in fellowship groups – the heart of the organization. Each month, 4,600 fellowship groups meet in the U.S. and internationally.
- ◆ Aglow is established in nearly 170 nations on six continents, all of which have indigenous women overseeing the work in their communities.
- ◆ More than 21,000 Aglow leaders worldwide minister in their communities.
- ◆ Aglow women reach out to an estimated 17 million people annually.
- ◆ Aglow consists of small group studies, care (support) groups, retreats, and annual conferences.
- ◆ Aglow women, through prayer and evangelism, offer practical gifts of clothing, food, housecleaning, and babysitting, as well as mentoring and training young women.
- ◆ Aglow women impact their communities by reaching out to women in prison, in senior homes, inner city neighborhoods, and mental institutions, to single moms, as well as to the average woman next door.
- ◆ Aglow has experienced rapid growth in the past several years, including the nations of Central Asia, Europe, the Middle East, and Africa.
- ◆ In Europe, Aglow is established in every major nation (40 nations).
- ◆ An active Aglow program in Europe called “Adopt-A-Nation” gives many of the Western European nations the opportunity to “adopt” other nations for support and or prayer.
