Hi, Charles...

Missed you yesterday at SBTOA.

I'm attaching a course announcement and press release from someone called "Citizens Protection Alliance." As you'll see, they say that POST certification is pending.

Do you know anything about this course or presenter? Has certification been applied for? Granted?

I'd appreciate any info you have.

Thanks.

Devallis,

I originally told Richard Valdemar, a retired LASD Sgt that I was not going to certify this course to them as a stand alone presenter. Apparently the main person in this group is Liz Dutton, some reporter from the LA area.

She has been in contact with the LASD about certifying the course on their behalf. The area consultant for LASD, Gary Manini, was aware and showed me several emails between him and Brian Smith, a Lt. at STAR center. Dutton has been talking to him about the conference that was originally slated for April.

Both myself and Gary Manini are on the same page and we will not be certifying the course from the POST perspective.

Charles

Hi, Charles...

Thanks for the input.. Very interesting.

We have some concerns about the legitimacy of this seminar. It appears the promoters may be claiming POST and LASD approval without authorization. Could you tell me who applied for certification, or send me copies of their application paperwork? We may need to consider whether any actionable misrepresentation is occurring here.

Thanks again.

See you next month.
