

"Sk it, Jesus. This award is my god now!"

— Kathy Griffin

CHRISTIAN ENTERTAINERS SAY “ENOUGH IS ENOUGH”

This is in response to comments given by Kathy Griffin as she accepted her Emmy award. Ms. Griffin said in her speech that, “A lot of people come up here and thank Jesus for this award. I want you to know that no one had less to do with this award than Jesus.” She also said, “Sk it, Jesus. This award is my god now!”

Dear America,

We are the actors, singers, dancers, crew and managers of The Miracle Theater in Pigeon Forge, Tennessee. We are proud to stand on stage every night and use our God-given talents to portray the life and the love of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We, along with thousands of other Christians in the entertainment industry, know our talents do come from God, and we take offense when His name is battered and bruised by people through the media.

Over 2,000 years ago, Jesus was mocked and few stood up for Him. We at The Miracle Theater consider it an honor to stand for Jesus today. We may never win a national award. We may never be household names. We may never be seen in Hollywood. Although others may choose to use their national platform to slander our God, we are honored as professional entertainers to stand for Christ.

We are The Miracle Theater—Pigeon Forge, Tennessee

The mission of The Miracle Theater is to present faith-based family entertainment through live theatrical productions revealing the person of Jesus Christ as The Living Word of God.
