Professional Biography:

Catherine Palmiere is president of Adam Personnel, Inc. and Adam Temporary Services, Inc. During her more than 26 years of professional staffing experience, Ms. Palmiere has assisted employers in filling temporary and permanent positions from the administrative level up to senior executive. She has risen through the ranks at Adam Personnel, Inc. beginning her career there in 1981 as a placement specialist. After leaving the firm in 1992 to work for another staffing firm, Ms. Palmiere returned to Adam Personnel in 2000 as vice president/principal. In 2007, she took over the leadership reigns of both companies as sole principal owner and president.

Ms. Palmiere holds a B.S. and M.B.A from Manhattan College and is a Certified Personnel Consultant (CPC), a Certified Temporary Staffing Specialist (CTS) and a Certified Search Specialist (CSS). She is also a member of the Society of Human Resource Management and the National Association of Female Executives, along with being listed in numerous editions of Marquis Who's Who. In addition to her professional staffing career, Ms. Palmiere is a part-time faculty member at the Grace Institute, where she teaches a course on office procedures and practices.

Ms. Palmiere is a native New Yorker who enjoys exercising and making sure she laughs at least three times a day, both of which helped her complete two New York City Marathons.
