

John Sillett signs new top scorer

Coventry City legend John Sillett has taken on the challenge of proving he has more footy knowledge than any other Coventry City fan by joining KnowTheScore.co.uk, one of the fastest growing football games online.

"I'm glad Martin has joined the team for Coventry's very own Know The Score League" said John Sillett.

The game, where supporters choose 11 games per week and are awarded points dependant on the final scorelines, boasts fantastic prizes totaling over £6,000 weekly, with over £250,000 in prize money distributed over the season.

Do you think you can outscore John Sillett? Register at www.KnowTheScore.co.uk and if you enter the special code: SKYBLUES3 you'll get a 3 week Free Trial.

Now that's a result.

There's plenty to play for - each entry will place you in a national, regional and if you can find 4 mates, a 5-a-side league too. 3 ways to win for only £1 a go.

"We had a fantastic day in the executive box. Thank you so much to the Know The Score team". "I'm looking forward to trying to beat John throughout the season with my predictions" said Martin O'Mara.

You may know more about football than your parents, your friends and even your colleagues but do you know more than one of the Clubs most successful Managers? There's only one way to find out and that's at www.KnowTheScore.co.uk

KNOW THE SCORE?

Our first winners Mr and Mrs O'Mara enjoying an executive box day with John Sillett against Bristol City

As an EXCLUSIVE bonus to all CCFC supporters, anyone entering will be placed in an additional CCFC Know The Score League, alongside John, with the opportunity of winning these fantastic bonus prizes:

- Each week the top scorer will win 2 tickets to the next home game in one of our corporate boxes compliments of Know The Score.
- Runners up will win a Know The Score football signed by the first team squad.
- You'll also be playing for a season long bonus of 2 season tickets for the 2008/09 season for being the top footy 'Know The Score it all' for the season, with second and third prizes of a signed football shirt and a next season full kit.

Plus, anyone taking up a Know The Score season ticket, will also be helping with our own Sky Blues Academy as £1 from every season ticket sold is donated to them.
