He took home the crown in 2007 after finishing 3rd in 2006. Over the last couple of years, Pearljammer has amassed an impressive online resume, with over 100 wins, 600 final tables, and close to $2 million in cashes. The 2008 Internet Poker Rankings Player of the Year Race will be a dual-race hosted, once again, by www.InternetPokerRankings.com. Player from around the world can play in either the International Race with tournament times more conducive to Europe, or the US Race which bring them much of the same great tournaments that the IPOY is known for. You can do both if you like! Monthly winners will also be tracked and the overall winner will be crowned at the end of 2008.
