Personalized Dog Tags, Custom Rubber Bracelets, Boxing Gloves, & MMA Gear!

Columbus, NE (PRWEB) February 15, 2008 – CAS Enterprises, Inc. announced today the increasing popularity of its rather unique product mix. Known mostly for its flagship product, Custom Silicone Rubber Bracelets & Wristbands, from its flagship website, TheAwristocrat.com, CAS Enterprises has continued its phenomenal growth rate by adding an eclectic mix of new products to its customer pleasing arsenal.

The newest addition, Personalized Custom Dog Tags, has accelerated from zero to sixty in record time. It is now CAS Enterprises' number two seller - trailing only their Silicone Awareness Wristbands and Bracelets. New customers have been rushing to TheAwristocrat.com's website in search of these dog tags. From Elementary, Junior, and Senior High Schools to Church Youth Groups to Bands and Promoters to College Fraternities and Sororities to Small Businesses and from Individuals all the way to Large Corporations - custom dog tags are being gobbled up and put to a wide variety of uses: identification, recognition, fashion, memorabilia, and increasingly as unique church and school fundraiser ideas (to name a few). Because personalized military ID tags have become so popular among teenagers and they are often exchanged as signs of friendship and a way to declare certain facets of the teenager's personality, selling these custom dog tags is a great way to raise funds for school clubs and church organizations. The tags are relatively inexpensive to customize and their popularity guarantees that they will sell well and raise gobs of money.

In addition, the popularity of Custom Printed Neck Lanyards and Slap Bracelets continues to grow as well. The ubiquity of lanyards in organizations coast to coast is far from fading, while Custom Slap Bracelets have made a phenomenal comeback as a fun promotional product at companies and schools - most notably - college campuses.

Clark Swihart, CEO, noted, "It's amazing that there is so much synergy amongst such a wide variety of products. Truly, the sum is greater than its parts."

One of these parts is the Boxing Gloves and MMA Shorts sold at MartialArtsPride.com, another CAS internet property. They also sell a wide selection of MMA Gloves & UFC Gear on the site. As Mixed Martial Arts continues to explode in popularity, these products continue to grow in demand. Interestingly, there is even some cross-over between customers of TheAwristocrat.com and MartialArtsPride.com. Many MMA and Martial Arts schools are interested in the Unique Promotional Products offered by
