

Hillary or Obama—Who Wins in Presidential Economics?

QUESTION	CHOICES	CLINTON: 68.3	OBAMA: 80.2
1. This candidate's primary platform and proposed policies seem mainly:	a. party-centered b. self-centered c. country-centered d. poll-centered	a. 12.8% b. 44.8% c. 16.1% d. 24.7%	a. 19.5% b. 16.1% c. 43.1% d. 14.5%
2. If elected, this sign above the oval office would best describe his/her attitude toward learning:	a. open for business b. proceed with caution c. yield d. no soliciting	a. 22% b. 18.1% c. 12.6% d. 45.4%	a. 54.7% b. 16.8% c. 13.7% d. 7.2%
3. If this candidate made a mistake as President that required public admission to address the issue, she/he would:	a. blame b. admit it c. justify d. keep quiet e. deny	a. 30.9% b. 15.2% c. 36.3% d. 4% e. 12.1%	a. 5.7% b. 47.2% c. 19.9% d. 12.4% e. 4.8%
4. If something isn't working in his/her administration, at a press conference she/he would:	a. rarely respond b. skirt the question c. only act like their answering d. respond thoughtfully	a. 9.9% b. 29.5% c. 45.3% d. 13.4%	a. 2.5% b. 17.3% c. 25.8% d. 45.7%

Salt Lake City, Utah (PRWEB) March 3, 2008.

For the full report, please visit <http://www.egoballot.com/ballot.php?q=results>.

Contact:

Steve Robinette, Public Relations Director

MarcumSmith, LC

801.492.9009, ext. 109

info@marcumsmith.com

www.marcumsmith.com