Press Release

Furniture & antiques retailer, 'Eclectics' announces a unique series of auctions to benefit Aids hospice and treatment.

Over 300 unique pieces of timeless art and estate antiques to be auctioned in benefit of Aids HealthCare Foundation-Magic Johnson Clinic.

Los Angeles, California, March 24, 2008:

'Eclectics,' a specialty estate art, antique and furniture retailer based in Sherman Oaks, California, announced it will host a series of limited auctions offering unique and one-of-a-kind items. Eclectics will donate a percentage of the auction's proceeds to the Aids Healthcare Foundation-Magic Johnson Clinic. Celebrity auctioneer/actress, Tere Morris, will host the inaugural auction.

"The auctions will provide an unprecedented opportunity to acquire fabulous art and furniture pieces while supporting such a fantastic organization as Aids HealthCare Foundation-Magic Johnson Clinic," according to Melissa Taraneh, co-owner of Eclectics. A champagne reception will be held immediately prior to the first auction on Friday evening, March 28, 2008.
