Analysis

Games sites have always posted stellar scores in the ISAR index. They are one of the few industries that have beaten the index every year. Game sites are strongest in content, design, technology, and innovation. They scored the third highest innovation score and fourth highest technology score across all industries in the ISAR index.

Game developers understand how their users interactive with their brands online and their Web site reflect the immersive nature of online gaming. Drawing from rich graphics and animation directly from the games they are promoting, game sites often can create an online experience to mimic their products.

About this Report

The Web Marketing Association has collected industry Web site development benchmark data since 1997 through its WebAward program. Multiple independent judges review and score each site from 0-10 points on each of seven criteria for a possible 70 points. Best of Industry WebAward is given to the site that scores highest in the industry. The views of this report are based on observations of aggregated industry data and do not reflect the results for any particular Web site unless noted. For complete information, go to www.webaward.org
