

aro presents "THE FUTURE OF ELDER LAW"

SUCCEEDING IN YOUR ELDER LAW PRACTICE BY STAYING CURRENT AND CLIENT-CENTERED

As in 2007, attorneys from across the nation will gather in Charlotte, NC to participate in this half-day educational workshop with Tim Takacs, one of the foremost experts in the field of Elder Law.

When: Friday – May 9, 2008 at 1:30 - 5PM
Where: Renaissance Charlotte Southpark Hotel, Charlotte, NC
Cost: $169 per person – Limited Seating
Credit: 3.0 CLE Credits Earned

HERE ARE SOME HIGHLIGHTS YOU CAN LOOK FORWARD TO DURING THIS UPCOMING EVENT:

- The “graying of America” and how it impacts your practice
- Changing laws you must know in the area of Elder Law
- Navigating the red tape of state requirements for your client
- Serving the elderly client and their family effectively
- Growing your practice through client-centered services
- Copies of the book, “A guide to Elder Law Practice” by Timothy Takacs, will be available.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

A graduate of the University of Notre Dame and Vanderbilt University Law School, Takacs is in private practice throughout Tennessee. He serves on the Board of Directors of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, and is a charter member of the Special Needs Alliance, a network of the country’s leading disability lawyers. Takacs is one of the first Elder Law attorneys in the nation to assemble an interdisciplinary team of experts to provide integrated client care. His innovations have “transformed the practice of Elder Law in the US” and “have set a new standard of excellence in the field”. Takacs is the author of “A Guide to Elder Law Practice”, published by Lexis Law Publishing.

ALSO DURING THIS EVENT

Hear from Nicole Vandiver Bryan of the Estate and Elder Law Firm of Vandiver & Bryan, Cornelius, NC. A 1999 graduate of Campbell University with a BA in Political Science from UNC-Chapel Hill, Bryan will offer her expertise and a North Carolina perspective on this important topic.
