

"Sitemasher's web development tool is a quantum leap..."

"Anthem Capital is delighted to be a lead investor in Sitemasher. At Anthem Capital we invest in great people with great products. The Sitemasher team is fun, motivated, smart and results oriented. Sitemasher's web development tool is a quantum leap towards simplifying the web site development process. It is a boon to site developers and owners alike. We think the development community will agree in the months and years to come. So there you have it. Great people with a great product in a great space....so we are in..... with bells on."

"Sitemasher delivers a multi-tier solution..."

"Sitemasher is new, outside the box and delivers a multi-tier solution: business, technical and operational. Business owners can take full control of their websites, design and content, completely and with more ease than ever before. I highly recommend Sitemasher to business stakeholders who don't want to call a developer every time they want a simple change to their website. In our business, eVolution www.evolution.bm, a world-class applications service provider focusing on providing turnkey solutions to small to medium-sized businesses, we have greatly simplified the IT world for our customers. In keeping with that theme, we recognize Sitemasher as an up-and-coming force in the web development marketplace."
