Mind Over Machines Appoints Shelly Frierson As Senior Project Manager Sage Software Authorized Partner boosts consulting team with hire of new senior project manager.

Austin, TX—May 29, 2008— Mind Over Machines today announced the appointment of Shelly Frierson as senior project manager, working in the company's Austin, TX office. Ms. Frierson is an enterprise-wide systems consultant with more than 18 years of experience in both the private and public industry sectors. She will work with Mind Over Machines' new and existing clients providing management and oversight of the company's business software implementation projects.

"Shelly brings tremendous experience managing large, complex projects, and we're thrilled she's decided to join us," said Lloyd Smith, president of Mind Over Machines. "Shelly will work with our clients and our staff, setting expectations, providing overall project management, and ensuring best practices in our on-going engagements as well as all new projects."

Ms. Frierson established her own consulting practice, Frierson Consulting Services, in 2001, where she advised companies on business system strategies and assisted in implementation of new processes and software solutions. Prior to starting her own practice, Ms. Frierson was a Director at Dell Computer Corporation, where she led that company's global effort to deploy financial and procurement suite of applications to all regions—Europe, Asia Pacific, and the Americas. She also worked in Oracle Corporation's Consulting practice and spent nine years at KPMG Peat Marwick in the Audit, Tax and Consulting areas.

Ms. Frierson is a licensed CPA in the state of Texas and holds a BBA in accounting from Baylor University. She is a current member of the Project Management Institution and is a certified PMP. While at Dell Ms. Frierson was awarded the CFO Manager of the Year Award. Ms. Frierson has served as Treasurer on the board of Zilker Theatre Productions and is currently serving as Treasurer on the board of Morning Mist Retreats, a non-profit organization.
