Because the needs of clients vary, so should the strategies in promoting their practices. Our approach and how it works are the result of years of proven search engine optimization research and experience.

From beginning to end, only proven, effective methodologies to help you get the exposure you need from your customized cosmetic surgery marketing kit.

- ▶ Expert Keyword Research – By thinking laterally and "outside-the-box", cosmeticSEO.com develops keywords and phrases that drive hidden visitors to your site. Everyone searches the Internet in different ways, so shouldn't your site be proactive in addressing these needs? We think so.
- ▶ Web Design that Works – Building your Web site takes a fine balance of creative art and technical science. Too much of one, and your Web site can be off, resulting in missed opportunities from visitors. Gone are the days of multi-colored, heavy framed Web sites utilizing Flash and other negative features. Enter today's world of Web sites for cosmetic and plastic surgeons — pleasing to the eye, functionally easy to navigate, with Web copy that is timely, informative, and educational.
- ▶ Dynamic Link Building Campaigns – The term "link building" has been a popular phrase for the Web community for years, and for good reason. Someone links to you, creating a bond, that bond gives your Web site strength, relevancy, and ultimately, higher rankings. Linking goes a long way in developing long-lasting, sustainable high rankings in many of the search engines. It's a vital component of your cosmetic surgery marketing kit that we push aggressively.

- ▶ Community Forums – Your Web site is more than just an information portal about breast augmentation, face-lifts, rhinoplasty and all your other procedures; it's a community-based environment where visitors can share thoughts, ideas, concerns, and recommendations on cosmetic and plastic surgery. The more you invite and make visitors emotionally attached to your site, the more they will stay, spread the word about your site, and ultimately show up at your office requesting your services.
- ▶ And there's so much more – This is just a small, bite-size sample of what your cosmetic surgery marketing kit will include. There's a lot more to share with you, so give us a call to see why we are truly different in building a long lasting Internet marketing strategy for your practice.
