

About Reformation

Headquartered in Los Angeles, the Reformation team builds its brand around using a clear or tinted premium resin to revive the opulence of a time past, accomplishing a never-before-seen trend in furniture. But that's not all. A sensual fabric for the sophisticated upholstery and voila... a conversation-starter, eye candy... Art as furniture.

The designer and creative lead, Jeremy Ingram, envisioned an airy, light feel to the once-heavy looks of yesteryear and the result is groundbreaking... a highly chic, resilient piece-of-art-as-furniture.

Ingram's involvement of himself in every step of the process ensures the quality of his vision and the product is unmistakably breathtaking.

Reformation invites you to discover a new way of looking at furniture.
